From: Zach Lutz

To: Microsoft ATR

Date: 12/9/01 5:17pm

Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The recent Microsoft settlement proposal not only lacks any form of punishment but will undeniably make the company stronger by giving them a greater foothold into one of the last markets which isn't completely dominated by Microsoft. To go forward with this decision is not only highly irresponsible but immensely dangerous. I suggest you rethink this situation, the public won't stand for this monopoly to continue as is.